MONDAY, - - OCTOBER 13, 1856 Special Notice to Business Men.

As an advertising paper, the Democrat is uni-orsally regarded as the established medium of business communication between the buyer and sellor; its largely increasing circulation, both at home and abroad, offers a favorable opportunity for a judicious dissemination of mercantile intel-ligence. It is also a favorite family journal, hence retail dealers, as well as more extensive trades-people, mechanics and citizens will find its columns essential to prosperous business

It stands at the head of one of the great parties of the country, reaching thousands that no other medium does reach. Now that the "Fall Cam-paign" is drawing upon us, we hope they will not fail to learn the facilities our paper affords them, but at once avail themselves of its advantages which surpassanything in its former history.

Postponement of the Grand Mass Meet ing and Barbecue, at Gilman's, near Louisville, in Jefferson county, until the 28th instant.

In consequence of the grand mass meeting a Lexington, on the 231, this postponement has been determined upon, that the two meetings may not interfere. Will all our friends please give notice of this change of time? Remember the grand mass meeting and barbecue will take place at Gilman's on the 28th inst.

The Know-Nothing party have behaved in a shameful manner toward Fillmore. They seized upon him to make his credit avail them for their party aspirations. How he might be affected by it, was a matter of no moment. He was to be used as long as he was useful, and traded off for the benefit of the seedy politicians who are striving to make themselves respectable. It is now manifest that his party in the free States have sold him out, and gone over to Fremont. They join the freedom shriekers in their State tickets, and thereby throw all the weight of their votes to magnify the influence of the Black Republican party. They know that such a policy crushes ou Fillmore. He sees it, and must have an exalted idea of the fidelity and gratitude of his party. He made it a point to tell them that the election of Frement would produce a dissolution of the Union; that the South would not, and should not, submit to the Presidency of a man nominated and supported as Fremout was. This was an intimation to his friends that the Fremont party, of all parties, was to be shunned. How little have his pretended supporters heeded his admonitions! The very party against which he uttered his significant warnings, is the one his party have everywhere combined with in the free States Only a small remnant of Fillmore men are to be found North of Mason and Dixon's line. That not the unkindest cut; here in Kentucky, the counsels the brethren in Indiana to join the black legions, in contempt of Fillmore's warnings. How must the ex-President feel; he who left the Pre sidential chair respectable in the eyes of all na tional men, four years ago, when he sees his patriotic counsel spurned by pretended friends, who have used his name and credit for their own purposes? Truly he is in the midst of traitors. and can't tell what a day may bring forth. Be has, it is true, some friends still in the free States, few and far between they are, who will still vote for him, and spurn the sectional party agains which he warned them; but the mass of his sup-taken the best material they had, to be sacrificed for the benefit of office-sockers. There is a contrast between the conduct of the Know-Nothings and Black Republicans. The latter would not risk the credit of Seward, Hale, or Chase. They took up Frement; he had nothing to lose; and they had nothing to lose if he were sacrificed. They put him forward to stand the brunt, and succeed or fail, whilst the cham ot be Seward or Chase that is beaten, but John nothing to lose, and consequently will have lost

Not so with Fillmore , he had some character and the conduct of a faction have added a disthat the future historian will seldom make.

tion Fand.

The incumbents of the small post offices throughout the country are bitterly complaining of the infamous tax that has been levied upon them to supply the Democratic corruption fund. Whave received several eleters from various quarters deorying this outrageous villaday, and denouncing the party that has been compelled to resort to such unprecedented baseness. Ose case is that of a postmaster of an office not far from Louisville, the whole prequisites of whose office amount to about fourteen dollars per annum. An assessment of from five to ten dollars her annum. An assessment to be paid out of the miserable pittance of his perquisites under the threat of dismissal from office in case of his failure to comp y with this tyrannical and infamously corrupt of mand. A number of the incumbents of petty post offices in this vicinity have informed us that they have revived directions from Washington of forward from three to five or from five to ten dollars, in proportion to the importance of their respective offices, to be expensed in promoting the election of the Democratic candidates. There is no doubt that these demands have been made upon every en ployee and office older under the present administration, no mitter how insignificent may be the office which he holds. This deep and damning evidence of the corruption of the Democratic party must disgust all honest men, and drive them from the support of a party which relies for its success upon such corrupt villadry.

Gev. C. S. Morehead and the Hansas-Nebraska Act.

The clause of the Kensas-Nebraska act, repealing the restriction of slavery to the Territory of the general government, south of a certain degree of latitude, known as the Missouri Compromise line, imposed by the 8th section of the act preparatory to the admission of Missonri into the Union, is now denounced by the Fillmere party of Kentucky as a breach of plighted faith, a reopening of sectional agitation, and a Pandere's box from which have issued all the political evils.

Sectional Republicanism.—Hon. George of the leaders of the box from which have issued all the political evils which now afflict us. And yet it is a carious his-

And when commended to us as a matter of policy, which ought to be maintained for the sake of domestic peace, we have denied that it ever centributed to quiet sectional agitation, and asserted that any hope for such a result from it was altogether de- toral vote of Indiana. lusive. In both of these positions we are sustained by the words of Mr. Clay, repeated and indorsed by Mr. Morehead. In a speech delivered by Gov. "He (Mr. Clay), submitted to me the first draft of the "He (Mr. Clay), submitted to me the first draft of the resolutions, which he intended to make the basis of his adjustment, and desired that I shoul! freely and unreservedly give him my orinion. I made some objections to one of those resolutions and suggested the propriety of extending the M ssouri compromise line to the Pacific, on the ground that it would be more likely to unite the South; and argued that it was but carrying out that principle which had been so immediately connected with his former fame. He replied promptly that he was not the author of that line, at d that if any credit was due to it, it did not belong to him, but another.

"We called the next morning, and he informed us of Man that he had made up his mind that his resolutions which the head made up his mind that his resolutions which or man to regulate Congress in morning Territorial government, was non-intervention, eaving to the people when about to form a State government perfect freedom of action on the subject of slavery—that the extension of the Missouri line was a departure from that principle, and would prove to be altogether delusive."

SIR:

Mr. Clay here emphatically repudiates the authorship of the Missouri restriction, denounces it as a departure from the true principle of non-intervention which ought to govern the action of Congress in the organization of new Torritoies, and rejects the proposal of its extension for the sake of quiet, as an error in principle which privileges you enjoy as the challenged party. would prove altogether delusive. All this Mr. I am, &c., ROGER A. PRYOR. would prove altogether delusive. All this Mr. Morehead details in warm terms of commendation. And yet the Know-Nothing order now assail the Democratic party because they have incorporated in the Kansas bill this very principle of non-intervention, commended by Mr. Clay and Mr. Morohead as the true principle for the organization of every Territory. Mr. Morehead further

"Next to the bright hopes of a christian faith, his de-parting spirit was most cheered with the knowledge that oth of our national parties had made the great prin-iples of his adjustment a part of their respective plat-

And yet the Democratic party is now denounced by the Know-Nothing order, because they have organized a Territory upon those very principles of his adjustment here commended by Mr. Morehead.

But this is not all. We have from the lips of Gov. Morehead a hearty approval of the very clauses of the Kansas-Nebraska act now so furiously assailed by his party, and a proposition to instruct the representatives from Kentucky on the floors of Congress to support that bill. From the journal of the House of Representatives, Kentucky Legislature, session 1853, we make the following extract:

The House then took up for consideration the resolutions read and laid on the table by Mr. Bates, on the light of February.

Mr. Morehad moved the following as a substitute for said resolutions, viz:

Wherras, The Congress of the United States have now un er consideration a bill organizing temporary governments for the Teritories of Nebraska and Kansas in which is contained a clause repealing the restriction of slatery, which was imposed by the eighth section of the act preparatory to the duission of Missouri as a State late the Union; and whereas, Kentucky leels a deep and abiding interest in a prop sition se consistent with the equal rights of all the States. A Card to the Public.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 7, 1856. It is known to the public that the late contem plated meeting between Roger A. Pryor and B.
B. Betts was arrested this morning by the police of Washington, aided by Mr. Tyler, police officer fichmond, sent on by Joseph Mayo, of Richmond. Under these circumstances, and others which I shall state in this card, I feel impelled, as the second of Mr. Pryor, to publish the correspon lence with these remarks. Here is the correspon RICEMOND, Oct. 1, 1856. SIR: There is no need that I should demand satisfaction for your "card" in the Whig of this morning. You announce your responsibility in advance, and I have only to request you to name your time, place, and weapons. Excuse me for suggesting that the earliest practicable period and the most accessible point will best suit my and the most accessible point will best suit my convenience. TREE HILL, Henrico, October 1, 1856. SIR: I have received your note of date by the hands of Mr. Harrison, and have to say that at the earliest practicable moment (be assured of no un-necessary delay) I will name "time, place, and weapons," through my friend, who will communi-cate with your friend, Mr. Harrison.

I am, &c.
B. B BOTTS.
P.S.—I send this by your friend, Mr. Harrison.

RICHMOND, October 3, 1856. DEAR SIR: It is proposed that the contemplated meeting between yourself and Mr. Botts should take place near Washington city. Mr. Botts will immediately place himself out of the State. I will be in waiting at the National Hotel, in Washington, on Monday next, at 8 o'clock, A. M., when the precise and will be suggested for the when the precise spot will be suggested for the meeting, early Tuesday morning following; weap ons, pistols; distance, ten paces.

Very respectfully,

R. A. PRYOR, Esq., Through your friend, Mr. Chiseman.

RICHMOND, Oct. 3, 1856-8 o'clock. Sir: In response to my appeal to you to name the earliest practicable period for our meeting, have a promise under your hand that there should be "no unnecessity delay." The result is, that, after deferring a definitive reply for forty-eight bours, you at last agree to meet me next Tuesday morning in the vicinity of Washington city. There is much talk over the country about this Tair and it is hardly possible th recaution can prevent an arrest. I am impelled, oo, by considerations which it is not proper for me to meation in this note, to appeal to your generos-ity against the very unreasonable delay you pro-pose. I, therefore, suggest that you so far modify your arrangements as to appoint the meeting at surrise to-morrow, and at such place in the neigh-borhood of Richmond as you may suggest. I re-quest an immediate reply, which my friend, Mr. Chiseman, will receive at Dr. Dove's office, between

Sir: Your note has just been handed me, and whilst I am disposed to accommodate you in every particular not incompatible with my own arrange-ments, which have been made in accordance with what I understood to attach to my position, I regret that I do not feel at liberty to make the chang you propose.

B. B. BOTTS. R. A. PRYOR, Esq.

RICHMOND, Oct. 3, 1856—8 o'clock P. M. Sir: Protesting against the time and place, as exposing the parties in this affair to unnecessary hazards of arrest, I yet accept your terms, and will be in Washington in accordance with your arrangements. ROGER A. PRYOR. Мг. В. В. Воттв.

It will be seen from this correspondence, that immediately after the appearance of Mr. B. B. Botts's card in the Whig Mr. Pryor asked a meeting. It will also be observed that the ray, a. Mr. B. B. Botts was delayed forty-eight hours. It is also to be noticed that during this time It will also be observed that the reply of ing repaired to the point out of Virginia, and accessible to "the vicinity of Washington." Apprehending from the singular publicity given to the affair, that an arrest might take place if I travelled with Mr. Pryor, I left Richmond in ad-

Morehead here approves the Kansas act, as but a carrying out of the Compromise of 1859. And his own party in Kentucky assail the Democratic party as having reopened agitation, and broken a long acquiesced in compact.

If, therefore, the Kansas act reopens agitation, Gov. Morehead indorsed it. If it is a breach of pligated faith, Gov. Morehead approved it. If it is a Pandora's box, whence issued such evils, Gov. Morehead advocated it. If it embodies the dectrine of squatter sovereignty, Gov. Morehead holds that doctrine. What will our opponents say to this? Will they continue to assail us and repudiate their leader, or hush their petty objections and acknowledge their error?

We see here the vile wretches intend to exercise their higher law at the polls. Here are to be armed fighting men at the voting places, under the pretext of defending the purity of the ballot-box. The legal officers are not to be consulted, but fighting committees are to say who shall and who shall not vote. The people of Inwhere the proposal agitation, and broken a travelled with Mr. Pryor, left Richmond in advance of him, leaving him with Mr. Irving he was evening.

On Monday, at 8 o'clock, according to arrangement for a second interview, at 10 o'clock, to reduce the terms to writing. Shortly after we went to the ground, to prevent any mistake about it. Fear-and instructed Mr. Irving to have him on the ground before day, as the leaving of the head after ight direct the police to the spot. Upon my own arrival near the ground, which was fifteen minutes after five-mearly two hours before the vine wretting, and before it was fully light—I met Mr. Irving, who informed me that Mr. Pryor and himself had been on the ground some twenty minutes. I remained there some time, when Dr. Boyle, the surgoon, as it afterwards turned out, of Mr. Botts, arrived, and stated that he had passed a heak with strangers in it. Immediately after, this hack arrived, and proved to contain the police officers. Mr. Pryor, myself, and Mr. Irving, not be a leading to the

ing. Being satisfied from these more and that any attempt to secure a hostile meeting between Mr. B. B. Botts and Mr. Pryor will be tween Mr. B. B. Botts and Mr. Pryor will be mat ter, but friendly to the Hon. J. M. Botts, as also satisfied from the physical condition of Mr. B. B. Borts, as exhibited on the field, that Mr. Pryor ought not to shoot at him, I can have nothing more to do with the matter, and, giving the corres-pondence and these facts to the public, close my onnexion with it.

It is proper to add that Mr. Pryor succeeded in making his escape; and returning near the precise place of meeting afterwards, about the hour ap-pointed for the combat, was called up by Mr. Ir-ring. T. P. CHISEMAN. Going Up and Coming Down.

We know a vast amount of stocks, A vas: amount of pride insures:
But fate has picked so many locks,
We would. It like to warrant yours.
Remember, then, and never spurn
The one whose hand is hard and browa;
For he is likely to ke oup,
And you are likely to come down.

Another thing you will agree,
(The truth may be as well confessed),
That "Oddish Aristoracy"
Is but a scaly thing at best.
And though the fishes large and strong
May seek the little ones to drown,
Yet fishes all, both great and small,
Are going up and coming down.

Our lives are full of chance and change, And chance, you know, is never sure; And 'were a doctrine new and strangs That places high are most secure. And though the fickle god may smile, And yield the sceptre and the crown, 'Tis only for a little while;' Then B goes up and A comes down.

This world for you and me, my friend,
Harb something wore than pounds and Then let me humbly recommend
A little use of common sense.
Thus lay all pride of place saide,
And have a care on whom you frown,
For fear you'll see him going up,
When you are only coming down.

THE UPPER PENINSULA ELECTION.—The result f the election in the Upper Peninsula for Senator and Representatives has a deep significance. So far as the election was affected by local considera-tions, the Democratic candidates were sufferers, but local considerations were very much overborne by the greater interest felt in the event of the na ional issues involved in the national struggle. So intense is this interest away on the shore of Lake Superior, that in one locality, where a candidate for Representative claimed support on local grounds, but whose politica identity was not very distinct, he was required to sign a written pledge to vote for Gon. Cass for the U. S. Senate, before the peple would give him any votes at all.

The deep significance of this election is, that Black Republicanism has not the popular hold that even some Democrats have been led to fear. The Joper Peninsula is not less liable to prevailing nfluences than other portions of the northern States where the Democratic party has not been demoralized by Maine lawism and other isms, and by the defection of political leaders. The people of that section are a caim, thinking people. They estimate the incalculable importance of a right decision of pendiog questions, and have voted accordingly. And so, we candidly believe, will vote Michigan in November, and a majority of the northern States.—Detroit Free Press, 9th.

THE BALTIMORE ELECTION .- The election in Balimore was a mere farce. Only two-thirds of the otes were polled, the adopted citizens being prevented from voting by violence. Two years ago the vote in the city of Baltimore was twenty four thousand seven hundred and forty. It is now but little over sixteen thousand. Such a triumphwon by the slaughter of fitteen or twenty human peings—will be to the victorious party worse than defeat.—Cin. Enquirer.

This is emphatically a work of our sea. It is blocked.

This is emphatically a work of our age. It is history in the guise of fiction—history whose accuracy is attested by public records and State documents. Each maracter is a living reality. It is a box eminently suggestive of much needed menal reforms. It is not sectional; it his North and Scuth. It shows the social will generated by slavery in the one, and by neglected of worn-out Scuthern chivalry; the crimes of the forward of worn-out Scuthern chivalry; the crimes of the forward in the Five Points, and the soruci sin which luxurs test in our palecte. It portrays how those who the world regard as beacons humicaling the paths of virue, grovel in sensuality—sought and loved for its own sake; while the neglected of the world, in their depins of dearnation, yet emit some THEATES.-Mr. Conway had a most excellen house at his benefit on Saturday night, and we were glad of it. Rob Roy was never better put on the stage. As Rob, Mr. Conway only added to his reputation before the people-we expected him to be the Highland Chieftain, and were not disappointed. After the curtain fell at the close of the first piece, Mr. and Mrs. Conway were esiled to the front, and vociferously cheered. Mr. C., after an appeal to the sudience, gave expression to his gratification in a few plain, well-expressed and evidently heartfelt sentences that, we may almost say, endeared him personally to the people. There was no fulsome flattery-no highflows expression of happiness-nothing but plain, neat, common sense thoughts, eloquent with feel-

pg. Mrs. Conway's Helen MacGregor was an dmirable performance—so was her Esmeralda, in the afterpiece. When we meet with two such artistes, we could wish them to stay longer. They play to-night in Cincinnati, and we have no oubt will prove great favorites there. Mr. Bradley's Nicel Jarvie was excellently done-so was Hall's Dougal, Hamilton's Francis, and especially Benson's Major Gailbraith. The singing, both solo and chorus, was very respectable.

To-night Mrs. Farren will make her first appearance for some five years or more, in the arduous character of Lucretia Borgia, with Mr. Hanley as Genarro. The play is one we do not much admire-we don't think it calculated to do any wood. Mrs. Farren has been playing two weeks o 'eshionable houses at Ben DeBar's Theater, St. Louis's and we doubt not will draw well here. The a terpiece is a new one. The Anonymous Corresp ondent.

DEFERRAD. - Mesers, Kean, Stedman & Co., the proprietors of the new Louisville Hotel, had an tleipated the pleasure of entertaining their friends to-day, but as the opening occasion has been some what delayed, and their organization is not so complete as they could wish, they will be compelled to forgo that pleasure for a few days. After the immense throng in attendance upon the fair has abated to some extent, they will avail themselves of the first opportunity to give an entertsinment to which they had looked forward with much interest and delight.

THE BUNYAN TABLEAUX .- We understand that the patronage bestowed upon this celebrated work of art has been such as to induce the proprietor to remain another week. This is good evidence that our citia ens are ever ready to encourage whatever is meritorhous in its character, and such the Bunyan Tableaux, now on exhibition at Mozart Hall, andoubtedly and. An entrance was effected by the use of a burglarious instrument call a "irmmy," with which the door was boisted from the hinges.

NATURE PAINTING -- A REVIVED ART. -- The MATURE FAINTING—A REFIVED ART.—The principle of this art, shout which so much has reiently been said in scientific circles, growing out of the discoveries made by an Austrian artist—appears to have been known as far back as 250 appears to have been known as her back as 200 years ago, and to have been applied in the first instance to the taking impressions of plants for the purpose of botanists. A leaf being placed over an oil lamp, it was, when blackened and molified by the heat, placed between two sheets of paner, and a violent pressure being applied to it, an accurate copy of it was obtained. The next step was the taking of impressions by skel rollers, in which rate copy of it was obtained. The next step was the taking of impressions by steel rollers, in which case it was necessary for the plant to be perfectly dry. In 1852, a new method was discovered of printing from gutta percha, by which the object remained unipjured after great pressure. The process now adopted is to press the objectinto a

IMPROVEMENT IN PHOTOGRAPHY .- M. Garnier Gaernsey, photographic artist, has brought forgraphic pictures, which he denominates—"Septeme Garnier de Photocheregraphie Coloriee." The process consists in employing a textile or woven fabric instead of paper to receive photographic pictures; and the inventor having found by experience that photograph pictures are liable to fade away, and that this defect arises from the presence af certain sells or matter in the fabric applicant to receive the picture, he proposes to pictures, which he denominate employed to receive the picture, he proposes to subject the fabric to the operation of boiling water, which will neutralize, destroy or remove the injurious matters, and prevent them from operating on the chemical substances employed.

VERNET'S METHOD OF PAINTING .- The method of portrait painting introduced in Paris by Herace Vernot, the well-known artist, consists, first in mixing the colors with olive oil, which avoids the drying of the colors and the cleansing o brushes. When the painting is finished, a layer of the absorbing earth is applied to the back of the canvass, the oil is absorbed, and the painting becomes a pastile or erayon drawing. The earth is canvass, the on is accepted, and the earth is then removed and a coat of flarseed oil is substituted, which penetrates the colors, and the work is done. This method is said to be superior to any other practised in this beautiful art, and the picture of the colors of the colors of the colors.

tures are described as of peculiar excellence. Modeling in Plaster .- In projecting a human MODELING IN PLASTER.—In projecting at times figure Mr. Powers's improved mode is to set a pair of irons upon a platform, the irons reaching nearly as high as the hips, and corresponding in general direction to the bones of the legs; and around these a base is formed to hold them firmly by pouring enough mixed plaster to produce it. With these for a nucleus the statue is then commenced the produce it is no with cores and mortar. The cores these for a nucleus the statue is then commenced to be built up with cores and mortar. The cores are made by pouring a quantity of plaster on a piece of oil-cloth, and, as it begins to harden, scoring it deeply with a knife or chisel, so that when quite hard it may be easily broken into fragments of a desirable size. Courses of these cores are built up around the irons and above them until finally the entire body is finished in piece of cil-cloth, and, as it begins to harden, secring it deeply with a knife or chisel, so that when quite hard it may be easily broken into fragments of a desirable size. Courses of these cores are built up around the irons and above them, until finally the entire body is finished in this rough manner, the layers being cemented together by plaster or mortar. The chisels are then brought into play for the purpose of roughing the brought into play for the purpose of roughing the figures in o the general human shape, consisting of the legs, body, and head.

DISCOVERT IN GOLD EXTRACTION .- Two well known chemists of San Francisco, Messra. Chevalier and Dususeau, have discovered a principle by which gold may be extracted from any possible by which gold may be extracted from any possible unsterial in which it may be hid—the different sulphates, hydrates, exydes, &c., which, under present modes, defy the penetration of quicksilsilver, yielding their suriferous infinitesimal particles at once to this principle. It is alleged that seventy-five per cent, of the gold in quartz mines is wasted through ignorance of the operators, an ignorance which science has hitherto been unable to enlighten: but this discovery will, it is claimto enlighten; but this discovery will, it is claim-ed, produce an entire revolution in this respect Zones of Wind in the Northsen Hemisphere.

According to the scientific investigation of Professor Coppin there exist a the northern hemisphere three great sones of wind extending around the earth, modified, and, in some cases, partially interrupted by the configuration and character of the surface. The first of these is the trade wind, near the equator, blowing, when uninterrupted, from northeast to southeast. This belt is interrupted, however, in the Atlantic ocean, near the near the equator, in the Atlantic ocean, near the coast of Africa, upon the Mediterranean ses, and also in Barbary, by the actions of the great desert. The second is the belt of westerly wind, nearly two thousand mites in breadth, between latitude 25 and 60 north, and encircling the earth, the westerly direction being clearly defined in the middle of the belt, but gradually disappearing as the limits are approached on either side. North of this there is another system of winds blowing southerly from high northern latitudes, and gradually inclining towards the west.

The Rines of Saturn.—In the recently issued work entitled "The New Theory of the Creation and Deluge," it is stated that it is probable the rings which surround Saturn are composed of water, snow, or ice, which, at some future time, may descend and deluge that planet, as ours was deluged in the days of Noah. It would now appear that such an event is likely to take place sooner than was anticipated; for Sir David Brewster says that Mr. Otto Stuve and Mr. Bond have lately studied with the great Munich telescope at the observatory of Pulkaway, the third ring of Saturn, which Mr. Lanette and Mr. Bond discovered to be fluid; and that these astronomers are of opinion that this fluid ring is not of very recent formation; that it is not subject to rapid change; and they have come to the extraordinary conclusion that the inner border of the ring has, since the time of Huggens, been gradually approaching to the body of Saturn, and that we may expect sooner or later, perhaps in some deasn of years, to see the rings united with the body of the planet.

Facts for the People.

Facts are stubborn things, and the most inflexible, unchangeable kinds of facts are those that are substantiated by the uperring, unbiased, and disinterested testimony of thousands of intelligent, reliable, honest, upright persons, and it is a well established fact that such proof is adduced sufficient to make manifest the fact that Porter's Oriential Life Liniment is a safe and valuable remedy.

It is a fact that the Oriental Life Liniment will afford great relief in Rheumatism, and when persevered in effects a per manent cure.

It is a fact that the Oriental Life Liniment possees great power in reducing swellings. It is a fact that the Oriental Life Liniment is

It is a fact that the Oriental Life Liniment is the best known remedy for bruises, cuts, old sores, ed Stringfellow's conduct, and commanded him to sprains, ac, and it is a fact it should be kept constantly on hand by every family, so as to have it convenient in case of accidents. oc8 d&wtf ident of the Union Association, has been directed to invite all those who design emigrating to Kansas Territory this fall, to hand or send in their names to him, at the office of Olemmons & Casseday, corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets, Loursville, Ky. A number of families will leave this place for Kansas about the middle of October, and it is desirable that as large a settlement as possible should be formed by a union of the emigrants. It is now quite certain that quiet is restored in the Territory, and those who may wish to settle there in good faith, may be assured that they will not be disturbed in their lawful avocations. This invitation is not addressed to soldiers, but to those only who intend to reside in the Territory, and especially to men with families. The Union Association is forming a colony of actual settlers in the southern part of Kansas, at a new point, universally admitted to be one of the most beautiful and fertile portions of the Territory. Arrangements have already been made under which Virginia, Indiana, Tennessee, and Mississippi, will unite with Kentucky in the formation of our colony, and we expect large contributions of the States. Our location has been selected with great care, after a thorough exploration of the whole Territory by men of experience and sound judgment, and we cordially invite all peace-loving and industrious emigrants to join with us. The understined with cheerfully give any information on the subject that may be desired by those feeling an interest in our enterprize.
